

Join the Hub City Farmers' Market for our Spring Farm Bags!

March 26 -May 14

Participants receive weekly shares of local produce for 8 weeks at a discounted price. This program supports local farmers, including HCFM's Urban Farm. Participants will receive a random assortment of available local, seasonal produce and value-added goods along with recipes that correspond to the items in the bag so that you can try out new items and meals! Fall produce includes items like beets, herbs, strawberries, greens, radishes, broccoli and cabbage.

Pick up day will be Tuesdays, from March 26- May 14, from 2:00 – 6:00 pm each week at the Train Depot (298 Magnolia St.). For organizations with 5 or more shares within the city limits, HCFM will deliver to your location. All participants must sign the attached customer agreement. If you have any questions, please email Heather at Hraines@hubcityfm.org or call us at 864-585-0905.
